INTRODUCING MBS EXECUTIVE EDUCATION ■

Are you ready to arm the future leaders of your organisation with the powerful knowledge that comes from world class executive education?

When selecting an executive education provider, it pays to be discerning. Investing in the right choice will bring lasting benefits to your organisation. Astute organisations and business professionals choose MBS Executive Education for its enduring reputation, academic rigour and unique collaboration with the business community.

MBS is where the academic and business worlds come together

MBS is jointly owned and led by corporate Australia and the University of Melbourne. This unique relationship enriches the programs we offer and firmly sets MBS apart. Our collaboration with the business community equips participants with more than rigorous theoretical knowledge. Our Board of leading business executives ensures our teaching reflects modern business and prepares our participants for real-world application.

We select and attract the world's leading academics

MBS attracts world leaders in their fields. We select academics for their expertise as scholars and researchers, international standing and progressive teaching skills. Our academic leaders are committed to lifelong learning and reflect leading thinking and practice in their teaching.

Open Programs

MBS Executive Education open programs enable busy executives to acquire powerful new knowledge and skills relatively quickly. Our open programs cover a broad range of fields and specific subject areas – all with a focus on pioneering research and business thought leadership.

Tailored Programs

MBS Executive Education can also tailor a program to address the particular learning needs of your people. Providing benefits that extend beyond the classroom, your team will up-skill as one cohesive group. They learn precisely what they need - at a time and place that suits you.

Your education consultant will help you carefully select the style and structure that's right for your organisation. And depending on your goals, we can also guide you on the most efficient pathway towards a University of Melbourne accreditation.
