

Let us help you take charge of your utility bills

You can't change Australia's rising energy, gas and water prices. But you can lower your bills.

How? By making your home or business more efficient. And by going solar.

Elevate can help you with both.

We're certified – for your peace of mind

We're proud to be certified as a Clean Energy Council Approved Solar Retailer. This means we:

- Have committed to exceeding the minimum regulations set by government.
- Offer an additional warranty covering the 'whole of system', including its workmanship, installation and performance.
- Are committed to providing a responsible sales service – which means you'll never feel pressured into a purchase and will receive excellent after-sales support.
