

Discover why more councils now turn to Rec Relief

Rec Relief is your temporary staff specialist, exclusively servicing the leisure and recreation industry.

“We regularly call Rec Relief when we’re overstretched, and we’re always thankful when we do. Their consultants take on tasks enthusiastically and without needing to be trained. And as a surprising added benefit, my team is now more motivated because they know they are valued. They don’t feel threatened - just supported.”

Quoter Name, Local Government

Never again will you have to struggle without enough staff

If you are missing someone from your team or just have too much work on, then Rec Relief may be the answer.

Our temporary consultants excel in the local government environment and bring many valuable skills to support and enhance your team.

We fill the gaps in organisations seamlessly and ease the day-to-day pressure on your staff.

So whether you're looking for one-off support or an ongoing relationship with one of our trusted consultants, Rec Relief has the perfect person for you.

We have the specific skills you need

- > Leisure and recreation development.
- > Internal leisure facility management.
- > External provider contract management.
- > Recreation and leisure planning.

Our leisure and recreation specialists are ready to help you

Unlike a recruiter, Rec Relief already has the right people on hand.

We only retain people with substantial leisure, recreation and local government experience – and with an energetic and flexible attitude.

So you can expect us to hit the ground running without needing to be trained. Even better, we often have additional skills that your permanent team may benefit from.

We're also enthusiastic about any job you throw our way – small and simple tasks through to involved, complex projects.

And we'll eagerly accept those mundane or unpopular jobs that your staff want to run a mile from.

Where else can you secure a recreation specialist at short notice and at such an affordable rate?

Engaging Rec Relief makes good business sense. That's because our approach is both affordable and flexible.

Our consultants are charged out at fair hourly rates based on the local government award and banding system.

We take on both short and long-term projects – and happily work on-site with your team or off-site as required.

When you have an urgent need, we'll swiftly scope your assignment and recommend the right person from our pool of talented professionals.

We also provide clear and simple quotes – and we're always available via email or phone to answer your questions.
