

About

It all began with two colleagues – and their shared passion for perfection

MV Tiling & Stone was founded in 2014 by Michael Mollica and Sam Vettoretti – two spirited tilers with a drive to be different. But our history goes back much further than that.

Before founding our boutique firm, we spent many years together as colleagues in a high-end commercial tiling business. During that time, we acquired deep expertise – and a shared desire for excellence in all we do.

So we took the plunge and launched MV Tiling & Stone.

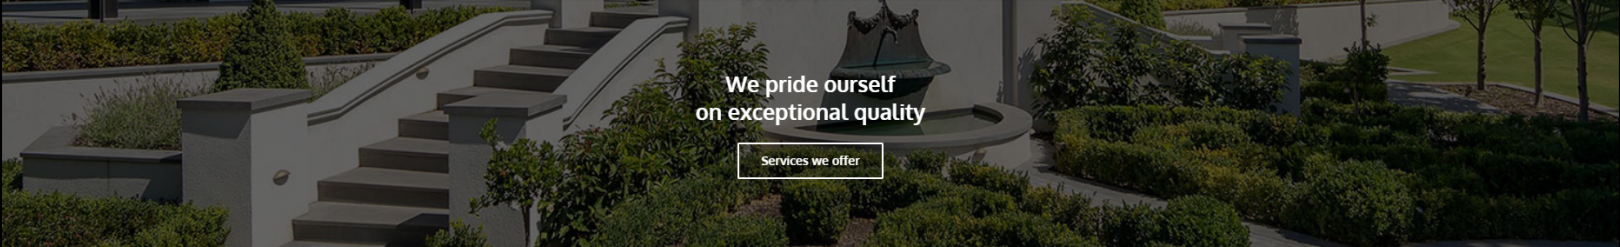

Today, more than six years on, we still treat every job like it's our first – and every project like it's our own. We understand that the quality of your tiling installation must match the exquisite spaces you've created.

And we don't stop until we deliver exactly that.

But we also know we can't do it alone. That's why we only recruit Melbourne's most diligent tiling installation professionals; people who value quality, care and craftsmanship as highly as we do.

That said, we both still stay across each and every project ourselves to ensure we achieve 100% customer satisfaction, 100% of the time.

It's how we fulfill every promise – and maintain the exceptional standards we strive for.

We pride ourself
on exceptional quality
